Opening Hymn

As the ministers enter, all rise for the opening hymn.

Thaxted

1. O God beyond all praising, we worship you today
2. The flow’r of earthly splendor in time must surely die,
3. Then hear, O gracious Savior, accept the love we bring,

And sing the love amazing that songs cannot repay;
Its fragile bloom surrender to you, the Lord most high;
That we who know your favor may serve you as our King;

For we can only wonder at ev’ry gift you send,
But hidden from all nature the eternal seed is sown,
And whether our tomorrow’s be filled with good or ill,

At blessings without number and mercies without end.
Though small in mortal stature, to heaven’s garden grown.
We’ll triumph through our sorrow and rise to bless you still,

We lift our hearts before you and wait upon your word;
For Christ, the man from heaven from death has set us free,
To marvel at your beauty and glory in your ways,

We honor and adore you, our great and mighty Lord.
And we through him are given the final victory!
And make a joyful duty our sacrifice of praise.
Greeting and Welcome

Opening Prayer

Psalmody

Please be seated following the singing of the first psalm.

Psalm (121) 122

Willcock, S.J.

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord;

let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Following the singing of the psalm, a few moments are spent in prayerful reflection. All then rise for the psalm prayer. All are then seated for the second psalm.

Psalm (129) 130

Antiphon: If you kept a record of our sins, Lord, who could escape condemnation?

The cantor begins the first strophe which is taken up by the west (left) side. The strophes then alternate between east and west sides.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord.
Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive
to the sounds of my pleadings!

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness,
that you may be revered.

I long for you, O Lord,
my soul longs for his word,
My soul hopes in the Lord

More than watchmen for daybreak
Let Israel hope for the Lord.
For with the Lord there is mercy,
in him is plentiful redemption.
It is he who will redeem Israel
For all its iniquities.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be forever. Amen.

All repeat the antiphon.

Antiphon: If you kept a record of our sins, Lord, who could escape condemnation?

Following the singing of the psalm, a few moments are spent in prayerful reflection. All then rise for the psalm prayer. Please remain standing for the Canticle which follows.
1. At the name of Jesus Ev'ry knee shall bow,
2. At his voice creation Sprang at one to sight,
3. Humbled for a season, To receive a Name
4. In your hearts en-throne him; There let him subdue
5. Christians, this Lord Jesus Shall return again

Ev'ry tongue confess him King of glory now;
All the angel faces, All the hosts of light,
From the lips of sinners Un-to whom he came,
All that is not holy, All that is not true.
On the clouds of glory, O'er the earth to reign.

It is God's good pleasure We should call him Lord,
Thrones and Dominations, Stars up-on their way,
 Faith-fully he bore it Spot-less to the last;
Crown him as your captain In temptation's hour;
Love and faith-ful service We his peo-ple vow,

Who from the begin-ning Was the might-y Word.
All the heav'n-ly or-ders In their great ar-ray.
Brought it back vic-to-rious When from death he passed.
Let his will enfold you In its light and pow'r.
And our hearts confess him King of glory now.
Words of Remembrance

Choral Anthem

Restless is the heart until it comes to rest in you.
All the earth, all the earth shall remember and return to our God.

Lord, you have been our refuge through all time,
from one generation to the next;
before the mountains were born,
or the earth brought forth, you are God,
without beginning or end.

To your eyes a thousand years are like a day,
no more than a watch in the night.
You sweep us away like a dream,
like the grass that springs green in the morning,
but faded by night.

Make us know our life’s shortness,
make us know our life’s shortness
that we may gain true wisdom of heart.
In the morning, the morning fill us,
fill us, fill us with your love.

Intercessions

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Concluding Prayer
Blessing

Mode V

Salve, Regina, * mater misericordiae: Vita, dulcedo, Hail, Queen, mother of mercy: Life, sweetness, et spes nostra, salve. Ad te clamamus, exulsae, filii Haeæ. Ad te and hope of ours, hail. To you we cry, exiles, children of Eve. To you suspiramus, gementes et flentes in hac lacrimarum vale. E-ia ergo, we sigh, groaning and weeping in this tearful valley. Ah then,
Advocata nostra,illos tuos misericordes ocular ad nos converte.
Advocate of ours, those your merciful eyes towards us turn.
Et Jesus, benedictum fructum ventris tuæ, nobis post hoc exsilium
And Jesus, blessed fruit of your womb, to us after this exile show. O clement: O loving: O sweet Virgin Mary.

Funeral Mass

The Funeral Mass for Father Hesburgh will be celebrated tomorrow, at 2:00 p.m. in the Basilica of the Sacred Heart.
“The Holy Spirit is the light and strength of my life, for which I am eternally grateful. My best daily prayer, apart from the Mass and Breviary, continues to be simply, ‘Come, Holy Spirit.’ No better prayer, no better results: much light and much strength.”

REV. THEODORE M. HESBURGH, C.S.C.
